Could you take down the Titan?

KILN Farm Club is challenging people to conquer their Titan Burger to raise money for young cancer victim Henry Allen.

The beastly burger contains three 6oz steak burgers, cheese, bacon, onion rings and hot chilli, with caramelised onions. All this is served on a mountain of chips.

Competitors are being sponsored to try and eat the whole dish, with money going towards Henry, aged three, who suffers from neuroblastoma.

Henry's parents Dawn and Mark set up the Henry Allen Appeal, and have already raised £30,000 should they need to send him abroad for treatment which would not be available in the UK.

The challenge starts at 7.30pm on Saturday at Kiln Farm Club.

Police warning over thefts of car parts

BY ANNABEL HOWARD
annabel.howard@mk-news.co.uk

DRIVERS are being warned over increasing thefts of costly catalytic converters from cars and vans in Milton Keynes.

In the latest incidents thieves stole a catalytic converter from a Jeep Grand Cherokee in a car park in South Second Street last Wednesday. Another theft took place in the early hours of Tuesday April 2 from a Peugeot Expert van, in a car park in Fern Grove, Bletchley.

Catalytic converters, or 'cats' as they are known, are part of a vehicle's exhaust system and control emissions from the engine.

They are stolen because they contain precious metals and the thieves are cashing in on rising prices. The thefts can be very expensive for motorists as 'cats' cost £300 or more each to replace.

PC Dirk Pym, of Milton Keynes CID, said: "Following these recent thefts in the Milton Keynes area, we are urging owners of vehicles with catalytic converters to put them in a garage if they can.

"Industrial estates, car parks, and new car forecourts are also some of the places that are being targeted, where the more appealing vehicles are parked overnight.

"Vans, 4x4s and trucks are easier to target due to their height off the ground and easy access to the underneath of the vehicle."

Crime Reduction Advisor for Milton Keynes, Ed Allington, has confirmed police are still actively investigating the crimes after a string of incidents in January.

He urged drivers to park vehicles in a way which restricts access underneath them. Fixing bolts on 'cats' can also be welded shut.

Witnesses can call 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

City breaks records for business

MILTON Keynes has broken a number of its own business records in 2012 – according to a new report.

The Duport Business Confidence Report reveals a series of remarkable economic statistics last year, including a record number of company formations.

The group say that the report signals an MK economy that is doing well in the face of tough financial conditions.

There were a total of 2,725 company formations – more than any other year in the history of the city and a 13 per cent rise on 2011.

Meanwhile, there were more companies started in the city in the months of October and November of 2012 than any other year in MK's history.

This, combined with a fall in company closures, led to a record year for net company growth.

Milton Keynes also broke its own record for UK company share, reflecting its growing importance in the UK economy. In 2012 Milton Keynes formed 0.6 per cent of all UK companies, an improvement on 2011 when the city was responsible for 0.5 per cent.

And while not record-breaking, the good news continued as it emerged that while 1,361 companies had been dissolved, it was 3.3 per cent lower than 2011.

And 2013 looks set to be just as successful, with accountancy firm PwC predicting GDP growth in the region to reach 1.8 per cent, the highest growth outside Greater London and the south east.

Managing director of Duport.co.uk Peter Valaitis said: "Milton Keynes is becoming a significant economic hub, as the report shows. The number of new companies setting up will strengthen the economic base."

Tattoo convention tribute to Joe

TRIBUTES will be paid to a tattoo artist from Milton Keynes at an international tattoo convention in June.

Organisers of the event in Northampton plan to remember Joe Kent, who died in a late-night incident in Milton Keynes in January, by donating £1 from the price of each ticket to Prostate Cancer.

Visitors can also get a tattoo of a moustache inked on their finger for £20 in memory of Joe, who did the tattoo regularly when he worked at Lucky 13 tattoo studio in Kingsthorpe, Northampton.

The convention's organisers Nigel Barden and Susan Barden have asked some artists at the show to dedicate their time to doing the tattoos, with the money raised also going towards the charity, chosen by Joe's family.

Nigel, who owns Suns and Roses Tattoo Parlour in Northampton, said: "Joe was a friend and customer. He had already booked a stand for this year. We are paying tribute as people forget too often."

Lady Thatcher was 'a friend of Milton Keynes'

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

Margaret Thatcher died at the Ritz Hotel on Monday morning, aged 87

LOCAL political figures, including the city's two Conservative MPs, have given their reaction to the death of former Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher.

Baroness Thatcher, who died from a stroke on Monday morning at the Ritz Hotel in London, led the country from 1979-1990, and was behind a series of controversial policies that to this day have divided opinion.

Milton Keynes South MP Iain Stewart said he was 'saddened' by her death, and called Mrs Thatcher a 'friend of Milton Keynes'.

He said: "I am deeply saddened by the death of Lady Thatcher. It is hard to believe that the lady who was Prime Minister for much of my childhood is no longer with us. She will always be remembered as one of the greatest of Britons.

"She was a great friend of Milton Keynes, visiting on a number of occasions. She formally opened the Centre MK shopping centre in 1979, returning to celebrate its 21st birthday. Her autobiography, The Downing Street Years, contains a photograph of her meeting the Milton Keynes' residents who were amongst the first to buy their council houses.

"I had the great honour and privilege of meeting her a number of times. She came to campaign with me when I first stood for Parliament in Milton Keynes and, shortly before I was elected in 2010 on my third attempt, I met her with fellow Parliamentary candidates and she instructed me to get on and finish the job!

"Growing up in a very socialist part of Scotland, it might seem odd that she was an inspirational political figure for me. However, her core belief that to succeed in life you need to roll up your sleeves and get stuck in, is one that has always chimed with me and will stay with me.

"She will be missed but her great legacy will endure."

Mr Stewart's comments were echoed by his Milton Keynes North counterpart Mark Lancaster, who added: "Margaret Thatcher was stubborn, courageous, thoughtful and diligent. She did things because they were right, not popular and was a true conviction politician. We are in her debt and regardless of your political affiliation her death marks a great loss for British politics."

Aside from her visit to open the shopping centre, Mrs Thatcher also played a key part in saving one of the city's earliest institutions, the Open University, arguing that it should remain open when she was appointed Secretary of State for Education in 1970.

Some of Thatcher's more controversial government schemes included the poll tax, which set a single flat-rate amount each person would pay. This was seen as grossly unfair by large numbers of people, leading to riots in London.

Thatcher also oversaw the Falkland Islands campaign, when she sent British troops to protect the islands when Argentina invaded in 1982.

To this day, her choices while in charge of the country are debated by both sides of the political spectrum, and MPs will be recalled from their Easter break this afternoon to pay tribute to the 'Iron Lady'.

Andrew Pakes, Labour & Co-operative Parliamentary spokesman for Milton Keynes said: "My first thoughts are with Margaret Thatcher's family and friends.

"She was Britain's first woman Prime Minister and a huge political figure on the world stage. Although I profoundly disagreed with many of the decisions she made, she was a big figure in British political life."

Mrs Thatcher will be given a ceremonial funeral with full military honours next Wednesday at St. Paul's Cathedral in London.

Chantelle, who comes from Middleton, will cut her hair for charity after growing it for three years

Chantelle ready to cut locks

CHANTELLE Trzeciak-Hicks has raised more than £1,000 for charity – after growing her hair for three years.

But her flowing locks will be cut off on Saturday, and she has pledged to donate £1 for every centimetre of hair to the Little Princess Trust, while she will also give money to Cancer Research UK.

The current length of her hair clocks in at more than 85cm, and she has already raised £1,046, significantly above her £800 target.

On her efforts, Chantelle, aged 12, said: "I wanted to do something about cancer, as I never got to meet my grandfather as he died of stomach cancer before I was born.

"I also feel it is important that we carry on researching to help beat cancer."

Chantelle, who comes from Middleton and attends Aylesbury High School, will have her long locks cut off at ZigZag Hairdressers in Kingston on Saturday.

Ground-breaking time for MK Rose

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

MK ROSE took another step towards reality yesterday, as the official ground-breaking ceremony was held in Campbell Park.

People gathered on Tuesday morning, pictured, to witness the start of the work.

The rose will consist of 108 pillars that will mark days and events that are considered to be important to the people of Milton Keynes.

The first 26 pillars have already been chosen, and will represent, amongst others, the Open University, summer solstice and International Joke Day.

The rose has been designed by artist Gordon Young and is being delivered by the Cenotaph Trust in partnership with The Parks Trust, and supported and advised by Milton Keynes Council Cultural Services.

Debbie Brock, chair of the Cenotaph Trust, said: "The ground-breaking ceremony means that MK Rose is finally a reality and we are thrilled to have reached this incredibly important stage.

"There is still time for people to say what they would like to see on the pillars and we look forward to receiving suggestions at www.mkrose.co.uk."

The construction of MK Rose will continue throughout the summer and is scheduled to finish at the end of October. It will formally open with a public ceremony on November 11, 2013.

Owners must clean up after their dogs

SIR – Can I ask dog owners to please clean up after their animals.

I live on Eaglestone and we have a green flag for our local park where family's with young children like to play and have a picnic. But they cannot because of a big problem we have – dog fouling. Dog fouling on the park land, grass verges and worse still, on the pathways and sometimes right outside homes.

There are some owners/walkers who do not pick up after their dog (the animals cannot do it themselves) whereas the biggest majority do, no matter what the weather even in the snow/rain/sunshine.

We have six, yes six, dog bins in and around the local park, kindly provided by Woughton Community Council. So, no matter what way you walk your dog, you pass a dog bin, so there is no excuse not to pick it up.

Also, please do not exercise your dog in the ball court. This is for kids to play football or basketball.

So I am asking dog walkers who live on Eaglestone, or those who don't but enjoy walking their dog around the park, to please be a responsible dog owner and clean up after your pet and let everyone enjoy walking around the park without walking in dog mess.

Someone needs to sort out our paths

SIR – The paths all round the Milton Keynes YMCA really could do with being relaid, as they are all old, some are missing and very uneven. It is really not good for my children, residents or pedestrians who may be walking through.

With the icy weather we have had lately and early darkness, it was disgusting to see so many near accidents as it seems no one can be bothered to sort this out, with different organisations saying such and such is their responsibility or not? This needs to change, and soon, before someone seriously gets hurt!

What annoys me the most, is that all the pathing around Milton Keynes, which is clearly owned by the council, is getting spruced up, relaid and is looking really nice.

Now, why can't the pathing around the YMCA be redone. They are a charity and unfortunately cannot afford to get that done themselves, why can the council not help in this situation?

Disabled people can quiz top politicians

SIR – Leonard Cheshire Disability is offering three disabled people the chance to meet politicians at the annual Conservative, Liberal Democrat and Labour Party Conferences this autumn.

Disabled people from across the UK who have a passion for politics have until May 3 to apply for our Access All Areas scheme, which we launched to ensure politicians hear directly from people with disabilities about the issues that matter to them.

We will support the three people throughout, and will pay for their conference passes, accommodation and travel costs, as well as those of a carer if needed.

We particularly welcome applications from disabled people who have experiences of social care they wish to share.

We need a new route to railway success

SIR – It is good to see that the Conservatives have not lost their enthusiasm for rail privatisation despite the reality of what is happening on our network.

John Baker, (MK Letters, April 3), really is waiting on the wrong platform if he thinks that train driver salaries are pushing up fares. The Government has already wasted at least £50 million of tax payers' money on the shambles of the West Coast Mainline franchise by trying to cut corners and fiddling with the franchise model. That waste dwarves the cash cost of delays to the new Wolverton station building.

Now, Labour didn't get everything right on the railways, but we have learnt lessons.

Labour brought the East Coast Mainline back into public hands after the private contractor handed back the keys.

This is a publicly-owned, publicly-run railway that has returned £640 million to taxpayers and re-invested a further £40 million.

But what lessons have the Government learnt? They are still rushing ahead with franchise plans giving more control to private providers rather than putting passengers first.

The Government want to privatise the East Coast rail franchise meaning that the £640 million surplus will go from cutting the deficit and improving services to boosting the dividends of shareholders.

We should be looking at mutual and not-for-profit solutions for our rail network, investing in future improvements, not ploughing on regardless with an approach that has failed to serve us well.

Mark's Work Focus

MP Mark Lancaster joins the binmen

Think before you hoot at our 'hidden heroes'

THE days of the 'binman' are gone, to be replaced by the modern 'waste and recycling operative'. Political correctness gone mad, or a true reflection on what really happens to our rubbish?

To find out I joined one of our collection teams in Bletchley and gave them a hand. After a safety briefing at the recycling centre in Wolverton, I joined Paul, Mez and Darren in their new 'single pass' vehicle.

Designed with sections for pink sacks, black sacks and glass, it reflects the move from just throwing everything into black sacks destined for landfill and the growing popularity of recycling. With a vehicle like this, the need for multiple collections, in theory at least, is much reduced.

To say I hit the ground running is an understatement – these guys don't mess about! The young crew literally run everywhere and within 30 minutes my outer layers have been stripped off and the chilly morning soon felt more like summer. I'd joined the crew on one of the busiest days of the year, as they struggled to catch up after a long Bank Holiday weekend. Black sacks in the main hopper and pink in the smaller, with the lorry in almost perpetual motion. No need to go to the gym for these boys. I can see why there didn't seem to be an ounce of fat on them.

So what are the rookie errors? Standing directly behind the hopper when it goes into crush mode, with a loud pop a bin bag bursts and out shoots some foul-smelling maggot juice, down the front of your fluorescent orange sweatshirt. One to be avoided. The guys have a great sense of humour, not least when encountering poorly parked cars that prevent the lorry reversing down tight streets.

It was hard work but satisfying. We all get frustrated when sometimes our blue recycling box isn't exactly where we left it. But I felt full of admiration for a crew doing a job many of us wouldn't fancy. Next time you're stuck behind a bin lorry, rather than hoot your horn, why not smile and say 'thanks' to some hidden heroes.

Council moves to tackle rats issue

BY ANNABEL HOWARD

annabel.howard@mk-news.co.uk

LAYING rat poison in Bletchley homes may not resolve the recurring pest infestation, it has been claimed.

Concerns were raised with Anglian Water after residents in Angus Drive, West Bletchley, discovered rats had been entering their homes via a storm drain behind the houses.

Residents complained to Milton Keynes Council but were initially unhappy with the response and admitted to being terrified in their homes, as exclusively revealed by MK NEWS last Wednesday.

Michelle Clarke, 36, of Angus Drive has said she has noticed an improvement since the council sent pest control for a second time last week.

However, the full-time mum is worried the rats could return if a permanent solution is not found.

The mother-of-four, who lives in a council-owned property, said: "I've applied to be on the house exchange list because I'm so worried that the rats will return. But I have been told they will not move me.

"Can't someone cover the storm drain or move it? They shouldn't have them near homes."

Anglian Water, which is responsible for the drain, has said that the vermin are only attracted to sites where there is leftover food and rubbish.

Antony Innes, from Anglian Water, said: "They live where there are sources of food and use the sewerage system to move about without the threat of predators.

"The most effective way of dealing with rats is to remove these sources of food. Unless this is done rats will eventually return to an area regardless of any pest control."

Milton Keynes Council started investigating complaints last month after being contacted by residents of three homes on March 22.

Head of Regulatory Services, Karen Ford, said this is the first reported problem in this road for two and a half years.

She said: "Any waste on private and public land can make a good home for vermin so residents should not leave anything in their back gardens for long periods of time.

"Bulky waste collections can be arranged with the council or people can use the council's waste recycling centres for free."

Labour councillors claim that despite the drain being owned by Anglian Water, the council has a public health responsibility now that the pests have got into homes.

Karen Ford said: "We have surveyed the area and laid bait traps where necessary. We will continue to monitor the situation over the coming weeks."

Cllr Mick Legg, who lives in Bletchley, said: "Pest control is monitoring the situation. We are still pushing the council to sort the problem with the drain.

"Now they have done a full survey they have been able to take some action against the rats.

"We do not want people to live with this fear of pests."

Egg-cellent time at Easter events

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

CHILDREN had an 'egg-cellent' time over the Easter holidays – as they went on egg hunts and made their own bonnets.

At the weekend rangers from The Parks Trust and volunteers from Hula Animal Rescue Centre held their Easter Eggs-travaganzas across Milton Keynes.

In Campbell Park, the Parks Trust event was sold out. Families could make their own Easter baskets and bunny ears on the craft stalls and then take part in an Easter egg hunt that took them around the whole of the park.

Children enjoyed getting their faces painted as well as meeting the Parks Trust Easter Bunny.

Julie Dawes, from the Parks Trust, said: "Around 100 families took part and had picnics. It was the first nice day we have had, the sun came out and people loved it."

At Hula Animal Rescue Centre, children got creative and made Easter bonnets, as well as visiting all the animals. The animals included some of Hula's happy horses, dogs, cats and more Easter bunnies.

Joy Nicholson from Hula said: "It was a very busy day indeed, I was working with refreshments and took a lot of money and could not leave my seat to see all the other activities."

Both events enjoyed a great success in the weekend's sunshine. More information on future events can be found at www.hularescue.org/index.html.

The Parks Trust has organised a range of activities which will help local people to explore and enjoy the parks and woodlands maintained. Visit www.theparkstrust.com for more information.

Gas pipe exposed by giant pothole

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A GAS pipe that has been exposed in a huge roadside pothole for more than four months is finally going to be repaired.

The road between Great Brickhill and Little Brickhill is used as a route for school runs, and also has regular horse and cycle traffic.

Transformation manager for Transport for Bucks, Rosemary Bryant, has confirmed that repair work will start the week commencing April 22.

She said: "In the meantime, safety cones and a sign remain at the site warning of the defect, and these are regularly inspected to make sure they remain in the correct place."

Great Brickhill resident Mark Stasiuk told MK NEWS that Bucks County Council was informed about the exposed pipe more than four months ago.

Mark said: "They put cones up and I assumed that something would then happen but nothing developed."

The issue was addressed at a Great Brickhill Parish Council meeting last Tuesday, when they rang the National Gas Emergency service, only to discover they had not been informed about the issue.

The exposed gas pipe has been unattended for more than four months

A Scotia Network Gas engineer visited the site on the Thursday and confirmed it was an exposed gas main and checked for damage. Hannah Brett, the group's communications officer, said: "It's the responsibility of the local authority to repair the grass verge. However, we will monitor our gas main and attend the site when the repair work takes place."

Great Brickhill Parish Council chair Barbara Wight said: "There has been a failure of communication between Transport Bucks and Scotia Network Gas."

7k downloads for MK business app

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A WOMAN from the city is hoping to make searching for businesses in Milton Keynes more convenient – after launching a special app.

Alison Lennon, from Monkston Park, created LocalBiz, an app specifically designed for people from Milton Keynes.

It allows residents to quickly search for a number of businesses, whether it is a plumber, a carpet cleaner or a restaurant for dinner that night.

The 43-year-old launched the app on March 12, and since then more than 7,000 people have downloaded the free software in Apple or Android form.

"I was concerned by the economic downturn and was determined to find a way to help MK businesses, and also to help the city's residents get the best value from the huge range of small business and self-employed talent we have right here in town," Alison told MK NEWS.

Appy: Alison Lennon shows off the LocalBiz app, launched last month

"Now that well over 50 per cent of people in the UK own a smartphone that was the obvious place to provide a service that's free for users and low-cost for advertisers."

Companies pay £10 or £20 for a premium space to list themselves on the app, and in less than a month Alison says more than 100 have already signed up.

The success of LocalBiz has led to other cities both nationally and internationally contacting Alison to see if she can roll it out to them as well.

"I've had cities from the USA, Finland, India and Turkey all see the Milton Keynes app and want it over there," says Alison.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Organised crime trio get 14 years

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

Jail: L-R, Hermandez-Villaneva, Duarte-Careano and Clorio-Cruz

THREE members of an organised crime group that stole jewellery worth thousands in a series of burglaries have been jailed for a total of 14 years.

The group committed a number of burglaries across the Thames Valley area, including Turpyn Court in Milton Keynes last October.

The three men, Andres Duarte-Careano, aged 41, Oswaldo Clorio-Cruz, aged 30, and Raul Hermandez-Villaneva, aged 36, all pleaded guilty to a number of counts of burglary.

Duarte-Careano and Clorio-Cruz were sentenced to five years in custody, while Hermandez-Villaneva was sent to prison for four years at Northampton Crown Court on March 22.

Thames Valley joined forces with Hampshire Constabulary, Wiltshire Police, Leicestershire Police and Northamptonshire Police to investigate burglaries at seven dwellings within these areas.

The offenders stole Asian jewellery worth thousands of pounds, and following the conclusion of their sentences all three defendants will be deported to their nation of birth.

Investigating officer, PC Chris Susel, said the sentences would assure the public that burglaries would be dealt with.

She said: "I welcome the substantial sentences imposed on these three defendants by the court.

"Hopefully these sentences will give assurances to the Asian community that these types of offences are a high priority for Thames Valley Police."

New leisure complex

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE new £7.5million swimming pool and leisure centre opening up in Wolverton is already causing a splash for excited locals.

That is the view of the man who is leading the project, the aptly named Matt Leeder.

The new complex's most outstanding feature is its swimming facilities, including a 25m x 13m adult pool, and a 13m x 7.5m kids' pool, both of which will officially be opening on Saturday April 20.

A week later, the upstairs gym, which includes 65 workout stations and two aerobic studios, will also open for members.

Plans for a new leisure complex in the Wolverton area have been a long process, and something Matt has been working on for nearly a decade.

"Plans have been in place for more than ten years, so to finally be so close to completion is great," he said.

"Wolverton had been a bit short-changed in not having these kinds of facilities in my opinion.

"But the interest from locals has been really positive. Although technically it's still a building site, so people haven't had a chance to have a look around, we've had a lot of interest on the phones, not just from people in Wolverton but also Stony Stratford and other areas the pool can serve. People out there are really excited."

But MK NEWS was given an exclusive sneak preview of the new complex, and while not quite everything is fitted out just yet, it is obvious that this is a seriously impressive building.

The kids' pool looks like an immediate winner, with a model snake by the side and toys up above that jet out water, and little games around the walls near the edge of the pool.

The adult pool now has an area that seats 85 spectators. Matt tells me that at the old pool, which was demolished in January 2012, people used to stand on benches to watch.

The colour scheme of green and blue is used throughout the building, from the many changing rooms and lockers that stand adjacent to the pool, to the upstairs aerobic rooms and the new sauna for members.

The building was funded after Milton Keynes Council secured money from central government via Growth Area Funding, while the job of building the complex was contracted out to Bedford firm SDC Builders.

And for Matt, the last few days are all about completing the finishing touches, before the grand opening next Saturday.

The pool will be open and free to use especially for the day, although collections will be held for Willen Hospice.

For Matt, it will mark the end of plenty of hard work to get the centre open.

"We've got a lot of stuff to do and there will be no time to rest," he says. "But I know that the end result will be worth it all."

Matt Leeder can't wait to open

Residents to help shape new library

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS in Kingston will be given the opportunity to say how their new district library will look.

Developers are building the shell of the new library to the specification that was agreed with Milton Keynes Council.

The details of the interior, which the council will be delivering, are still being developed, and throughout the spring and summer the council will be engaging with the public to ask them how they want their library to look.

Redevelopment work on the site, formally occupied by the Kingston Tavern pub, has already begun. The site will also provide five new retail units as well as the new library.

Paul Sanders, the council's assistant director of community facilities, said: "This is an ambitious project and we are giving people the chance to have the library that they want. Libraries generally have moved on in leaps and bounds over the years, and we are looking forward to having an ultra modern facility for people living in the local communities.

Building work starts on the site and inset, plans of the exterior design

"We will be talking to a number of potential commercial partners to ensure that they fit in with the library's ethos, can enhance each user's 'library experience', and even work to attract more people to join the library."

It is hoped that the shell of the library will be completed by the end of October, after which the council will start transforming the interior.

A number of workshops are being planned with the local community and businesses to work on the development of the library to meet community needs, attract new users and generate income.

Part of the fit-out is being funded by Milton Keynes Council, while further costs will be offset by renting out the mezzanine floor in the library.

Loan helps out new Subway

A NEW Subway store has opened at The Hub, after the director of a company secured a £126,000 loan.

Maltavini Ventures Ltd opened the 1,200 sq ft store, the group's fifth Subway in the region, after receiving the funding from Lloyds TSB Commercial Banking.

Vimal Patel, director of Maltavini, said: "We have been gradually growing our network of Subway franchises in Milton Keynes, and we are positive that the great location of this new shop means it will operate successfully.

"But we are still a small business that requires support, and Lloyds TSB has been completely understanding of our plans for growth."

The funding came through the Enterprise Finance Guarantee scheme, which helps small businesses with a workable proposal, but lacking sufficient security, to borrow money from approved lenders.

Award-winning cup firm aims for High Street deal

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

AWARD-WINNING Sucup Ltd has revealed that the group is currently working with a national retail chain on a deal to sell its innovative range of cup products.

The Milton Keynes business was invented by Andy Wells, from Bradwell, in 2008, after many prototypes in his garden shed.

The firm, now based in nearby Cosgrove, includes three cup varieties, The Sucup Teeny-Weeny, The Sucup Toddler and The Sucup Care.

The cups are designed to help babies, toddlers and those with eating problems to feed themselves with no mess and no need to tip the cup up.

Sucup, run by Andy and his wife Christine, has won two awards in the last six months and have many plans for the group's future.

In October last year Sucup won the Innovation of the Year Double Gold Award at the British Invention show.

And at the beginning of this year they were awarded a package of free mentoring and advertising after being shortlisted for the Local Business Accelerators competition, and being one of four local winners.

Andy could not reveal details of the impending retail deal yet, but he hopes the cups will be sold for £9.99. If all goes well they should be on high street shelves in the summer.

Andy told MK NEWS: "Sucup will be a big brand name and there is a lot we can do with it, there is no other product out there like it."

The company has also been praised by Milton Keynes North MP Mark Lancaster.

Mr Lancaster said: "I am delighted to see the success of Sucup Ltd. Small businesses play a vital role in our economy and in our local communities.

"I very much hope the accomplishments of Sucup will help to inspire other people to start their own business in Milton Keynes or to grow one they are running already."

To find out more about Sucup Ltd, and be one of the first to purchase a cup online, visit their website: www.sucup.com.

Grass is greener after 10 years of trading for group

A MILTON Keynes company is celebrating ten years of successful business in the city.

In 2003, Clare Phelan quit her job in the healthcare sector and brought the Milton Keynes GreenThumb franchise.

GreenThumb provide a programme of weedkill, fertiliser and moss control products and other specialist treatments for the lawns of domestic homes.

A year after taking control, Clare's partner Ray Hickling joined the team, and they now employ a total of seven staff.

Clare said: "Many of our customers who joined us in the first year are still coming to this day. It has always been our aim to ensure that we provide the best possible treatments for our customers.

"Who knows what the next ten years will bring for us all but whatever it is, it's our aim to keep enjoying what we do whilst tending the lawns of Milton Keynes."

Law firm opens branch in MK

AFTER successful branch expansions across the UK since 2005, the Family Law Group has now added two further branches – including one in Milton Keynes.

The Family Law Group is a specialist in mediation and collaborative law that deals in all aspects of family law.

Daniel Cooper, the head of the Milton Keynes branch, said: "Having previously worked for a specialist family law firm in Milton Keynes, I am particularly excited about the opening of the new office and returning to the area.

"I hope that Milton Keynes Family Law will soon be the first port of call for all those seeking family advice."

Steve Hook joins Bluefin Insurance at 'exciting' time

BLUEFIN Insurance, a leading UK based insurance company, has appointed a new Head of High Net Worth (HNW).

Steve Hook will be given the responsibility of managing Bluefin's HNW hub in Milton Keynes, as well as the firm's six other HNW hubs in Southampton, Bristol, London, Chelmsford, Stockport, and Harrogate, across the Private Clients Division.

Steve previously worked as Head of Wealth Protection for Aon Private Clients, Sales and Marketing Director at Healix Group, and Director for Corporate and Travel at Mondial Assistance, and has 20 years experience in risk sectors.

Tim Mortimer, managing director of Private Clients, said: "I am very pleased that Steve has joined us.

"Not only does he possess exceptional management skills but he also brings with him an extensive knowledge of the high and ultra high net worth sectors.

"His appointment comes at a very exciting time for our division, as we look to grow our business and expand the offering we provide to this sector in 2013 and beyond."

• In other recent appointments, the South East Local Enterprise Partnership (SEMLEP) has appointed its new chief executive.

The SEMLEP board voted in favour of recruiting Daniel Charles Mouawad, who previously held the post of chief executive at pro.manchester, a private sector business development company. He is also chairman of the UK's Institute of Economic Development.

Company wins gong for staff wellbeing

BY ANNABEL HOWARD

annabel.howard@mk-news.co.uk

ONLINE clothing and accessories website FOSSIL UK, based in Milton Keynes, has received a Simplyhealth Healthy Workplace award for demonstrating its commitment to the health and wellbeing of its employees.

Organised by healthcare provider Simplyhealth, the Healthy Workplace awards recognise the contribution that UK organisations make to the welfare of their employees. This includes both the private and public sector.

Winners of the award must prove they have provided staff with a range of initiatives and benefits that help to keep their workforce motivated and healthy.

Managing director of the retailer, Giles Bushby, said: "I am particularly delighted that FOSSIL UK have been honoured with this award.

"We go to great lengths to ensure that we support our staff to achieve a healthy and balanced lifestyle.

"This is a very welcome recognition for our efforts."

Simon Williams, director and chief instructor of Fit MK Ltd, has worked on building a corporate portfolio with FOSSIL during the last 18 months.

The company provides corporate fitness training sessions as well as fitness and nutrition workshops.

He said: "The attitude at FOSSIL was fantastic from the outset. It was soon reported back that the staff that were attending had a real noted difference in their performance at work, so FOSSIL then set up a programme which included fitness assessment and body fat analysis."

Howard Hughes from Simplyhealth, said: "We run this award scheme because we want to recognise and encourage companies to care about the health of their people.

"We believe that companies can make a positive contribution to the health of our nation.

"Congratulations FOSSIL for demonstrating that the health and wellbeing of employees is fundamental."

LITTLE Cyprus was hardly on our radar screen when I wrote this article last month.

We knew that the country was seeking a bailout from the rest of its Euro partners, but we could never have guessed that the Germans would demand that Cypriot bank account holders would be forced to take a substantial haircut.

The move, which was defeated by the Cypriot Parliament in that form, sent a shiver down the spines of investors elsewhere in Europe (including the UK), because it looked like the EU was prepared to ride roughshod over a guarantee that bank depositors would be guaranteed up to 100,000 euros per bank account.

Bank shares elsewhere fell as investors reconsidered the risk of investing in such businesses. Shares in Banco Santander, which are represented in the MarKet portfolio, fell sharply for a second month in a row. UK bank shares were also affected.

Equity markets generally fell on the news from Cyprus and yet, consistent with the trend seen over the last few months, it seems that the major pension funds continue to 'buy on the dips'. They see stocks and shares as being good value and have the cash to invest. Whenever there is bad news which depresses share prices they start buying to take advantage of the lower prices.

There do seem to be more takeover rumours around. This is not a surprise.

Companies have been storing up cash. As confidence improves, finance directors will wish to put this cash to good use, either by increasing capital expenditure within their existing businesses or by buying other businesses.

We have heard that companies like Marks and Spencer and even the giant Vodafone could possibly be bid targets.

Within the MarKet portfolio the stars were Persimmon, the nationwide housebuilder which is likely to benefit from changes announced within the Budget, and Home Retail, the owner of Argos which published a positive trading update.

DEPARTMENT FOR EDUCATION IDENTIFIES SITE FOR NEW COLLEGE

Wootton Academy Trust's directors are pleased to announce that the Department for Education has identified the location for Kimberley College, its new Sixth Form STEMi College. The building identified is in Stewartby and was originally commissioned by Hanson UK as its new Headquarters but was never occupied..

Kimberley College will occupy this iconic building which has won several prestigious architectural prizes for innovative design. It will provide an amazing environment for students to study before moving on to university or into higher level apprenticeships. Stewartby also offers good public transport links with Bedford and Kempston as well as places further afield.

There is tremendous excitement about the new college as the Trust is redefining approaches to teaching and learning to make these fit for twenty-first century learners. It is working closely with employers and universities to enable students not only to get excellent academic results, but also to acquire real practical skills which employers need. The Trust is similarly redefining approaches to teaching and learning in the Arts at Wootton Sixth Form College, the other Sixth Form College it operates. The Directors are also delighted to announce two new senior staffing appointments: Mr Tony Withell is set to become Senior Principal of Wootton Academy Trust in overall charge of Wootton College and Kimberley College, and Mr Michael Gleeson has been appointed Principal of Kimberley College, whilst retaining a senior role at Wootton. Both Mr Withell and Mr Gleeson have a great deal of experience in working for Wootton Academy Trust; Mr Withell as Head of Wootton Upper School for the last fourteen years, and Mr Gleeson as Deputy Head. Together they intend to ensure the colleges secure even higher outcomes for students than the excellent ones Wootton Upper School students currently achieve. The two colleges will complement each other; with Wootton specialising in the arts and Kimberley in STEM subjects.

Gatsby relives the indulgence of 1920s New York

BRINGING to life the classic novel by F Scott Fitzgerald, the Northern Ballet's production of 'The Great Gatsby' will take you all the way over to the States.

Exploring the indulgent days of New York's Long Island in the 1920s, Nick Carraway slowly begins to get to know his mysterious millionaire neighbour, Jay Gatsby. But as the play progresses, Nick begins to see beneath the facade, and comes to realise that beneath the lavish party lifestyle, loneliness has dominated his life.

The stunning backdrop of music will be arranged by BAFTA-winning composer Sir Richard Rodney Bennett CBE, and will be played live by the Northern Ballet Sinfonia.

The Northern Ballet has already tasted success in Milton Keynes with its productions of 'Cleopatra' and 'Beauty and the Beast', so take the time out to visit MK Theatre for what promises to be yet another hit with audiences.

The Great Gatsby runs from Tuesday April 16 until Saturday April 20. Matinees take place at 2.30pm on Thursdays and Saturdays, while evening performances start at 7.30pm from Tuesday to Thursday. Ticket prices range from £15-30.

'GI Joe: Retaliation' may have been scandalously positioned in the market for maximum effect, but there are a lot worse ways to spend a couple of hours at your local multiplex.

So what's the plan here? Simple. A) Draft in one of Hollywood's most bankable rising stars in Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson. B) Delay it by nine months to convert to 3D, thus maximising profitability. C) Keep some familiar faces (Channing Tatum, Snake Eyes) seemingly unscathed by the original, then reboot (kind of) the franchise. D) Stick in Bruce Willis for ten minutes to add a touch of (even if slightly waning) respectability. Check.

The film itself is fortunately a marked improvement over 2009's tepid, yet profitable, original.

It has some great action set-pieces to make it a watchable, if predictable, romp based on Hasbro's famous American action figures.

Master of disguise Zartan has infiltrated the US government by portraying himself as the President (Jonathan Pryce), and taken on the mantle of Cobra's interim leader in the process.

Under the guise of the world's most powerful man, he then attacks the covert army squad, known as the 'Joes', by setting them up – and leaving them for dead.

But the remaining members of the team must then quickly regroup to take out Zartan before he wipes out the world's nuclear threat, leaving Cobra controlling the remaining atomic weapons and the entire planet.

And despite a generic script and stale dialogue, some terrific set-pieces help eradicate the film's flaws. Retaliation does exactly what it says on the proverbial tin. Nothing less, nothing more.

indierock

DIRTY Fair are an indie-rock band determined to bring you melody, and plenty of it.

The four-piece group formed late last year, just a few miles up the road at the University of Northampton, and say they haven't stopped writing songs since then.

While the band is based in Northampton, singer and guitarist Jason Craig, formerly of 'Son of A Gun', is a Milton Keynes lad through-and-through.

With catchy choruses and compelling harmonies, the band is likely to appeal to fans of groups such as The Strokes, The Cribs, and Editors.

In February this year the band recorded a five-track EP, which has been gaining momentum ever since and caught the attention of local radio stations.

Dirty Fair will play at the Craufurd Arms on Saturday April 13. Doors open at 7.30pm and entry costs £5.

The Stables

wildlife

DO YOU want to know how far a cobra can spit? Or how to do polar bear dentistry?

TV presenter Michaela Strachan's Really Wild Adventures stage show will help you to discover bats, snakes, sharks, elephants and orangutans using rhyme, music and audience interaction.

An audience will also find out what nurses, bonnetheads and soupfind have in common.

The show at The Stables on Thursday, April 11, promises fun facts and is based on Michaela's book of the same title.

There will also be dancing and music. The show has been directed Malachi Bogdanov, award-winning associate director of the English Shakespeare Company.

It is suitable for children three and upwards and the young at heart.

Michaela will be signing copies of her book after the show which starts at 1.30pm.

Tickets cost £11.50 or £12.50. They are available from www.stables.org.

fiddlefestival

THE country's most dynamic fiddle group will celebrate two decades on the road next year with some of the biggest names in folk.

April's UK tour sees the reunion of past members of the Feast of Fiddles supergroup at The Stables, Milton Keynes, on Friday, April 12.

The band's annual spring tours have become a highlight on the folk calendar since the group formed for what was due to be a one-off concert in 1993.

The celebrated 11-piece group will roll back the years in what promises to be an unforgettable 20th anniversary tour.

The core fiddle section will be Fairport Convention's Chris Leslie, Steeleye Span and Gigspanner's brilliant bowman Peter Knight, Bully Wee Band's Ian Cutler, ex-Battlefield Band's Brian McNeill, Garry Blakeley (Band of Two) and Tom Leary (John B Spencer Trio/Albion Morris).

The backing band will utilise the talents of Hugh Crabtree on accordion, iconic folk-rock drummer Dave Mattacks, who has played with Fairport, Steeleye and Richard Thompson as well as the likes of Paul McCartney, Elton John and Chris Rea.

Other musicians include John Underwood and Martin Vincent on acoustic and electric guitars and Dave Harding on bass.

Last year's new kid on the block, bringing the sound of sax and keyboards to the Feast of Fiddles mix for the first time, is Alan Whetton.

He has played with everyone that is anyone from Dexy's Midnight Runners to Pete Waterman, The Manfreds, Vin Garbutt, Shakin' Stevens and Cliff Richard.

The band will be releasing their sixth album Rise Above It to coincide with the tour, recorded on both sides of the Atlantic.

A special souvenir book telling the story of Feast of Fiddles will also be on sale.

calendargirls

THEATRE group Click Productions is staging a version of Calendar Girls at The Chrysalis Theatre, Milton Keynes from May 1-4.

The play is based on the famous film about WI members who pose for a nude calendar.

The Click cast includes, professional actor Ashley Alymann and staff and ex-students from local schools. The company usually supports disabled charities and often runs voluntary dance and drama workshops for local Mencap groups. But as Calendar Girls is itself a charity production (supporting Lymphoma Research) and Click director Audrey Tang's partner, David, overcame Hodgkins Lymphoma last year, they have chosen this show.

quiznight

IT'S fair to say that British people love showing off their general knowledge in front of their mates.

It's perhaps the best reason why pub quizzes are always a fabulously entertaining night out full of banter and competitive spirit.

But this latest pub quiz, organised by Love:MK Volunteering Collective, aims to donate all proceeds to the MacMillan cancer support charity.

The evening also offers a valuable insight into how Love:MKVC, a new organisation, will be operating.

There are approximately 75 tickets available on a first-come, first-served basis. The quiz will be held at 7.30pm at the Slug and Lettuce in the Theatre District.

Tickets cost £7.50 and include a buffet. All proceeds go to MacMillan Cancer Support.

Refurbishing your fleet vehicles can save you big time. The cost of repairs from D & A Auto Group is a fraction of what you could very well end up paying in penalties for returning damaged vehicles to your leasing agent / fleet provider.

HANDBALL

GREAT Britain's handball skipper Bobby White will celebrate with a bottle of Jack Daniel's whiskey after racking up a half century of caps for his country.

The goalkeeper reached the milestone in a European qualifier against Greece at Crystal Palace on Sunday.

"There's not much money so we don't get proper caps," White told MK SPORT.

"I've been teetotal for a while so the Jack Daniel's will go down well."

Reaching 50 caps is a superb achievement for any sportsman and city player White admitted surprise at hitting the mark.

The former Newport Pagnell Town football goalkeeper has been on quite a journey since 2007, when a chance sighting of rowing legend Sir Steve Redgrave on television introduced him to handball.

Five-time Olympic gold medallist Redgrave was promoting the Sporting Giants programme, an initiative set up to find new stars ahead of London 2012, and White has never looked back.

He led GB at last summer's Olympics as a nation that was new to the sport began to learn about and love the game.

"When I played my first game 50 seemed a long way away, so I'm glad to get here so soon," he said.

"It might not have been the best results wise but it's a decent milestone."

Great Britain's first competitive victory, against Bulgaria in 2010, ranks as a highlight, but for White nothing has beaten the excitement of the Olympic stage where he competed against the world's best.

The sport suffered a blow when its funding was reduced to zero by UK Sport though, and GB can't qualify for the European Championships, losing 47-23 to Italy on Thursday before going down 32-20 to the Greeks.

"Losing funding was massive," White said. "We only had two days preparation before Italy which wasn't ideal, and the performance against Greece, after five days, was much better."

• Handball sessions for over 16s are due to start at Ouesdale School on Tuesday, at 6pm. For more details e-mail info@bobby-whitehandball.com.

MARTIAL ARTS

STUDENTS representing the British Military Martial Arts MK had a good time of it at a national tournament in Telford on Sunday.

Tyler Phillips, 8, came first and third in his category and William Overton, 11, picked up a second place after a close final match and also a third place under light continuous rules.

Max Morgan, 12, came first in light continuous, beating two England squad members along the way, and was also third in another category, while 18-year-old Jack Morgan secured two third spots in the adults category. Kai Overton, 11, fought well and won two matches but lost his bout for third place.

British Military Martial Arts teaches skills with a 'military flavour' of discipline, respect and control. The MK club is in Crownhill.

ATHLETICS

MILTON Keynes Athletic Club's women won the traditional season opener, the Alpha-Beta Trophy Meeting, at Lee Valley.

The seniors claimed a clear 39 point win over Herne Hill Harriers while the U15 team were second to Dacorum & Tring. Overall, MK won the event by a massive 84 points, ahead of Dacorum.

SQUASH

THERE was some high quality exhibition action at MK Squash Club on Wednesday.

World number 56 Olly Pett beat MK's number one Mahdi Ali in straight sets, and at racketball, GB number one Tim Vail beat MK number one Mike English.

ON THE CHARGE: Luke Chadwick battles past former MK Dons man Alan Navarro

Lowe seals vital win

Leyton Orient next up.

There was a major talking point early on last night involving Swindon's number one Wes Foderingham.

The keeper handled outside of the area as Patrick Bamford attempted to latch on to a long pass but with most of the stadium expecting a red card Foderingham escaped with just a yellow to the obvious annoyance of Robinson.

The remainder of the first half was a largely quiet affair but things became more lively in the closing stages.

There was a nervous moment for the home faithful when Andy Williams headed past Ian McLoughlin, but the goal was eventually ruled out for a dubious foul following discussions between the referee and his assistant.

Dons lost Stephen Gleeson to a worrying looking injury just seconds into the second half but any gloom was forgotten after Doumbe's opener.

Jon Otsemobor swung in a cross and the French defender headed into the corner to score the most important goal of Dons' league season.

There was obvious anxiety for the rest of the half but Dons were rarely troubled for the remainder of the game as they held out for the biggest three points they have claimed this year.

Sub Lowe, who unluckily had three goals disallowed in the frustrating 0-0 draw with Crawley on Saturday, wrapped things up with the second.

He linked up with fellow sub Alan Smith and slotted home with obvious composure.

With the gap to the play-off spots now just four points, a task which seemed impossible not so long ago is now a much more realistic possibility.

There are still four big games remaining but a sense of hope and confidence has returned to stadiummk.

Dons: McLoughlin, Otsemobor, Doumbe, S.Williams, Lewington, Potter, Gleeson (Lines 47), Bowditch, Chadwick (Lowe 66), Chicksen, Bamford (Smith 79). Unused subs: McLeod, Powell, Baldock, Kay.

Swindon Town: Foderingham, McCormack, Ward, Flint, Byrne, Luongo, Parrett (A.Rooney 68), Roberts (Collins 63), A.Williams, Ferry, Navarro (De Vita 63) Unused subs: Bedwell, Devera, L.Rooney, Ferguson.

LETTING FLY: Darren Potter aims for goal

MK Dons assistant boss MICK HARFORD writes exclusively for MK News every week

MYSELF and Karl went to Wembley on Sunday to watch the final of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy between Crewe and Southend.

I was manager at Luton in 2009 when we won the competition, and Karl was obviously part of the set-up when Dons won it in 2008.

When we arrived at Wembley we both said 'we've been here before'.

Southend were underdogs, just like Luton were when I was in the final, so it reminded me a lot of that day.

In the end it was to be Crewe's afternoon though as they won the game 2-0, opening the scoring early on with a fantastic goal from Luke Murphy.

His strike was a carbon copy of a move we tried to implement this season, funnily enough against Crewe, but when we had a go Shaun Williams fired over.

Southend's former manager Paul Sturrock is a friend of mine and was sacked shortly before the final, after being in charge for all of the JPT games before that point.

He was given the opportunity to return to the helm for the final, which was strange, but nothing really surprises you in football any more.

In the end I think he did the honourable thing by stepping aside, but it was nice when new Southend boss Phil Brown allowed Paul's former assistant Graham Coughlan to lead the team out.

I've been lucky enough to play and manage at the national stadium and it is not something that everybody gets to do.

It's a fantastic place to be and comes thoroughly recommended, and I was also fortunate enough to score there on a couple of occasions.

I don't think Paul deserved to lose his job and it must have been hard for him to miss out on Wembley - it was the first time Southend had reached a final and they brought tens of thousands of fans.

Being there gives you the inspiration for further big things in your career.

Farn's goal no comfort

EPL PLAY-OFFS SEMI-FINAL

SCORER: Michael Farn on the puck for MK Lightning in Coventry. See online for Jez Tibbett's photo gallery from the game

DEFENCEMAN Michael Farn takes no comfort from his Coventry goal after Lightning's play-off heartbreak.

The 24-year-old had put his side in pole position in the play-off semi with Guildford after a second period strike which handed the city skaters a 2-1 lead.

They could not hang on though and although Farn has a goal on the big stage to remember, he did not get the victory which Lightning's display deserved.

"We were winning 2-1 at the end of the second period and in that situation you hope to hold on in the third and perhaps get a game winner," Farn told MK SPORT.

"If we'd done that the goal would have been something to take away but as we lost you forget about it, things go from one scale to another."

Farn said that nine times out of ten his shot would have led to a routine save but on this occasion he 'caught it well'.

Skipper Adam Carr, who scored a golden goal winner against Slough Jets in the quarter-final, opened the scoring for Lightning in the first period but Guildford hit back through Nathan Rempel.

Farn restored Lightning's lead but third period strikes from David Longstaff and Rempel again won it for the Flames.

"It was a tough one to take," Farn said.

"People who were not there might say it is sour grapes on our part, but everyone said we were the better side.

"We were camped in their zone and we piled on the pressure.

"But if you don't capitalise it can come back to bite you."

The play-off finals weekend in Coventry, when two semis and the final are played over the two days, were a complete sell-out and it is an atmosphere that the players relish.

"That's why it's so important to make it to Coventry," Farn said.

"It's a bigger crowd than what you are used to and it is electric.

"I know everyone says that their fans are the best but I really believe it. Everyone has a good weekend and I think a few beers were drunk to warm their voices before hand."

Farn said that the team's strong bond would help with next season, which will be spent in Coventry due to redevelopment work at Planet Ice.

"There's a great chemistry which will help with whatever is put in front of us," he said.

"Everyone who signs for next season will be buying into it."

WORLD TOURING CARS

Nash earns podium spot

PODIUM SPOT: James Nash was third and fourth in Morocco

MILTON Keynes racer James Nash claimed a first ever podium finish in World Touring Cars by coming home third in race one in Morocco on Sunday.

The Bamboo Engineering driver was also fourth in race two on the Marrakesh street circuit – a pair of results which sees him maintain his lead in the Yokohama Trophy independents' standings and move him up to fifth in the overall rankings.

"It felt great to get my first podium," Nash said.

"I have fond memories of Marrakesh from last year but I can say I enjoy it much more taking home silverware.

"I'm annoyed about finishing fourth in race two but I'll leave that conversation there."

Nash, in a Chevrolet Cruze, started race one in Morocco from second on the grid but he quickly lost a place to eventual winner Michel Nykjær.

A significant part of the action was interrupted by the safety car and after this was withdrawn with just two laps to go, Nash was able to hold on to his spot in the top three.

In race two Nash started ninth due to a reverse grid, but a flying start saw him leap up to sixth by the first corner.

An incident allowed Nash to jump into third, but he was then nudged by former Team Aon team-mate Tom Chilton at a hairpin, which pushed him wide and allowed Chilton and Marc Basseng to pass.

There was time for Nash to pass Basseng, but the safety car made another appearance and wasn't withdrawn until the final lap, meaning he had to settle for fourth.

The former British Independents' Champion leads the Yokohama standings by six points ahead of Danish driver Nykjær.

In the overall standings he already has 46 points on the board after just two rounds – when he managed just 12 in the entire year last time out.

Nash joined Bamboo from Team Aon in the summer, a move which saw him get behind the wheel of the highly competitive Cruze.

Next up is the Race of Slovakia on April 28.

ATHLETICS

Golden Greg makes it a double Down Under

OLYMPIC long jump champion Greg Rutherford has won his second consecutive event in Australia following an improved leap of 8.10m.

The city gold medallist again saw off the threat of home favourite Mitchell Watt to win the Melbourne World Challenge, his second event of the season.

His victory follows on from success at the Perth Track Classic last month which he won after registering 7.89m, so Rutherford has improved on the mark he left at his campaign opener.

However, the 26-year-old, who won at London 2012 with a distance of 8.31m, is looking for much bigger jumps during the season.

"An 8.10m isn't anything massively special," he said.

"But we are in the early part of the year and waking up this morning I didn't expect to be able to jump that well so early.

"I'm pretty pleased with that off minimal training.

"I forgot what jumping eight metres means. My legs are tired."

Watt, the silver medallist in London, was again second in Melbourne with 8.01m and another Australian, Fabrice Lapierre, was third with 7.99m.

Rutherford has now returned to the United States for further training in Phoenix.

He is hoping to break the British record of 8.35m, which he shares with compatriot Chris Tomlinson, this season, and believes that some gargantuan jumps are possible as he continues to tweak his style to resemble long jumping great Carl Lewis.

The next major tournament for the MK Athletic Club star is the World Championships in Moscow this August.

"Hopefully I can have a successful 2013 as well and I can win a World Championship title," Rutherford told MK NEWS in Decemeber. "That's the aim."

SPORTSSHORTS

RUGBY UNION

MILTON Keynes still lead the way in the Southern Counties North after a 41-24 victory over Wallingford.

Superior tackling and running allowed City to open up a commanding 27-0 lead at half-time, thanks to tries from Gavin Whitehead, Dan Rolfe and a hat-trick from Dan Pearson.

Four of these tries went unconverted and Wallingford were much improved after the break, scoring four tries and converting two of them.

MK's earlier good work held them in good stead though and another score from Whitehead and a further late try from Alex Trivino ensured breathing space.

Ray Bray's side are a point ahead of Grove at the top, and three ahead of third placed Buckingham who have a game in hand.

City now face two challenging and physical games to close the season, starting with a crunch derby clash at home to Olney on Saturday, and followed by a pivotal trip to Grove on April 20, the last weekend of the season. Only the league winners secure a promotion berth, with the runner-up forced into a play-off.

Olney warmed-up for the clash with MK by hosting Grove, but they could do their neighbours no favours as they went down 31-10.

Rich James converted Chris Small's try and also kicked a penalty but these were the only points fifth placed Olney managed as they lost at home for the second time this season.

MK are hoping to reach the South West 1 East and at that level Bletchley essentially secured their survival by beating Witney, the side above them in the standings, 21-17.

They had to survive a nervy comeback at Manor Fields though, after tries from George Coote, Steve Allen and Chris Coussell, all converted by George Harman, gave Bletchley, who are now eighth, a 21-0 lead.

CYCLING

IAN Stannard was 51st at the Paris-Roubaix on Sunday – the race which has been dubbed 'the queen of the classics'.

The city rider crashed early on as he tried to chase back following a puncture, on what was a disappointing day for himself and the rest of Team Sky.

National road race champion Stannard had targeted a podium spot before the race, which was won by Fabian Cancellara.

"Ian used up a lot of energy after his early puncture and then his crash," Team Sky's Sports Director Servais Knaven said.

Meanwhile, MK based Team Corley Cycles have confirmed their new rider line-up.

A squad has been introduced which team patron Phil Corley hopes will 'build on their reputation as a privately based team that is never afraid to mix in at the top levels of British cycle sport'.

Dons still dreaming after win in last chance saloon

BY DAN PALMER
dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

LEAGUE ONE
MK DONS 2
SWINDON TOWN 0

IT was billed as a make or break game for Dons' play-off hopes and Karl Robinson's men got the job done last night thanks to Mathias Doumbe's header and sub Ryan Lowe's late strike.

The duo struck to secure a win in a game when only winning would do and the promotion dream is now firmly back on at stadiummk.

"We're in the mix now," manager Robinson said.

"I just hope it's not too late but we won't go down without a fight.

"We deserved that victory and there is now tremendous belief at this stadium."

All of Dons' remaining fixtures this season have been described as 'cup finals' but particular significance was given to this match simply because of where Swindon are in the table.

Before kick-off the Robins occupied the final play-off spot, and with Dons seven points back this represented a chance to cut into the deficit which simply could not be missed.

With Swindon facing a tricky trip to fellow high flyers Sheffield United on Saturday Robinson's men had to go all out against a side they desperately want to overhaul.

If the Wiltshire club slip up in Yorkshire the gap could be just one point if Dons win again in another massive match against

Poole so proud of beaten Lightning

LIGHTNING head coach Nick Poole watched his side's season end with an agonising 3-2 play-off semi-final defeat to Guildford Flames on Saturday – but the ice hockey boss could not have been more proud of his players.

The city side fell to the reigning English Premier League champions in Coventry but it was a cruel result for Lightning who controlled much of the game at the SkyDome.

"We played our hearts out," Poole told MK SPORT.

"I thought we were the better team for most of the game but these things can happen in sport."

Lightning scored in each of the opening two periods to lead 2-1 but they conceded twice in the final stanza to crash out.

"I think our second period was the best of the season," Poole said.

"We bossed it and put so much effort into it, but needed more goals.

"Guildford were able to regroup and in the third it was anyone's game.

"We still out-shot them and were unlucky in some good areas. I can't complain about the performance."

Flames lost the final 5-2 to Manchester Phoenix, who beat Basingstoke Bison on penalty shots in their semi, and Poole believes his men 'tired out' the league champs.

The result ended Guildford's hopes of a treble after they also won the EPL Cup this season.

Lightning were cheered on by an army of fans in Coventry, who Poole dubbed as 'fantastic', and the faithful will get used to the venue as it will be MK's home from home next season due to refurbishment at Planet Ice.

The year away will present various challenges with Poole predicting 'short term pain for long term gain'.

"We will sit down and assess the season, and see where we need to improve," he said.

"There are some big decisions to be made to determine how we cope with our year in Coventry."

THE rapid inch loss CLINIC

One of our success stories...

Who: Leslie Carey, 39

Where: The Rapid Inch Loss Clinic Nuneaton

When: 6 Weeks, June 2011

What Happened: Leslie had Ultrasonic Liposuction on her stomach and inner thigh but only lost ¾ inch after 1st visit. She then lost 2 ½ inches after her 2nd visit, before losing 16 inches in total over the course of her therapy.

How: We focussed Ultrasonic Liposuction on Leslie's inner thigh and stomach once a week (1 session on each area) for 6 weeks. After her 1st session Leslie ate take away food on 4 of the evenings, as well as drinking several pints of beer most nights. This resulted in slow progress. However, after only losing ¾ inch in week 1, Leslie decided to drink a little more moderately, ate more balanced meals and as a result she then lost 2 ½ inches between her 2nd & 3rd treatments. Leslie then resolved to adjust her lifestyle, she started eating & drinking in moderation, while making an effort to be more active generally. Leslie went on to lose 16 inches in total over her course which took in 12 sessions each on her stomach & inner thighs.

Why was Ultrasonic Liposuction Needed: Leslie has a demanding job as a director of an engineering firm, this lead to Leslie having a poor diet of take away food & beer, with little activity in her daily life due to a lack of time. Leslie arrived for her 1st session as a size 16, standing at 5' 6" tall

Where are they now: After achieving her target size and shape Leslie had lost 16 inches from her stomach and inner thigh. After completing her course and armed with her improved lifestlye and body shape Leslie felt inspired to take up Exercise! She began walking 3 evenings a week and therefore needed no more sessions to maintain her new size and shape!
